

Fact Sheet

ABOUT US

How We Started

Black Womxn United (BWU) started in 2017 celebrating, elevating, and centering the needs of the beautiful Black womxn and girls throughout the greater Sacramento area. We continue to evolve and remain committed to the advancement of Black womxn and girls. Last year, our programs encouraged, supported, and empowered approximately 600 Black womxn and girls in our local community.

Mission

Our non-profit is dedicated to the education, empowerment, and advancement of All Black womxn and girls.

Vision

We envision a community where ALL Black womxn and girls are equipped to lead and have equity in well-being, education and economic empowerment.

Values

Equity
Integrity
Excellence
Collaboration Accountability

PROGRAMS

Work it Girl

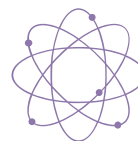

A professional and personal development workshop series.

Black Queer and Here

A monthly mental wellness experience supporting the LGBTQ+ community.

Black Girls Matter

An educational experience focused on Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, & Math (STEAM).